

To parents and parishioners of CPES and Divine Savior Schools :

On Thursday, November 17, we were informed the Chapter 11 reorganization of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee will affect the collaboration discussions between CPES and Divine Savior. To be open in our communication, as promised, we would like to inform you that we are still able to proceed with our conversations on collaboration to determine the best possible future for CPES, Divine Savior, and Catholic education in our communities.

This announcement does however remove the possibility of any legal merger of our schools at this time. If legally consolidating our schools is the final recommendation, the merger must be delayed until the reorganization plan of the Archdiocese is complete. This will ensure the protection of the schools and parishes assets. This does allow more time to create a short term and long term strategy that will greatly improve our chances of success. We will continue to update you on the work of the Catholic Schools Commission and our progress.

May God continue to bless the work of the Catholic Schools Commission, its committees, our parishes, schools, and communities, as we move ahead in faith!
